Notes for ABSALOM B. BYRD:

Absalom B. Byrd, the B. has not ever been indicated what is was for or what it stood for. He was born in what was know then as Buck Creek, west of Neely. Married Nebraska Elizabeth Walley. He lived across the road from his father, Josiah until later around 1886. They had all of their first six children here. He moved near to his in-laws, Willis Berry and Elizabeth McLain Walley in the Brewer community five miles east of Richton, MS. The other five children were born there. He later moved on the east side of Gaines Creek to be closer to his work and built a log home here and lived her until around 1905/06 and purchase land and a home in the Fairhope district, now as Arlington, where he lived until his death in 1924, in the Hospital in Laurel, MS. from a ruptured appendix. Grandpa Absalom was a turpentine contractor and worked mostly in the timber industry.

She was born September 19, 1898 in Perry County, MS, Perry Co., Mississippi, and died December 13, 1988 in Winfield, AL Hospital.

Notes for THEE ONOR (ONN) BYRD:

Thee Onor Byrd, "Daddy" was born East of Richton in the Brewer community, when he reached school age (no close schools) GrandPa Abb let him go and stay with the older brother Alex Byrd that lived in Raggtown SW of Pleasant Hill and went to school at the Skull Fork School a few miles east of there, Uncle Alex lived about five miles south of Pleasant Hill. Then a school was built East of where GrandPa Ab lived and he finished his schooling here. Went to work in the logging woods and turpentine business helping his Daddy and Brothers in the Timber woods. Then he started working for himself, He met and married Damaris Isabell Herring that lived SW of Beaumont, MS. They lived with his mother-in-law for approx. six years "mother was the youngest of the family and they did not want to leave her mother alone for a while. They then made their home in Arlington south of his Daddy, Abb Byrd. Built a new home there in 1921/1923.

"What a wonderful Daddy and Mother they were!!! He had a head injury that caused a blood vessel repute and caused a collection of Blood and he was taken to the University Hospital in Jackson, MS. and had it removed February 1963.
